ABOUT THIS BOOK: THIS IS THE ULTIMATE GUIDE TO GETTING LAID IN HONG KONG FOR WESTERN ASIAN MEN.

Most get laid guides and advice is catered to White Males. Never has anyone written a guide specifically for the Asian Male population. That is; till now. Whether you're a Western born Asian from the USA, Canada, Britain and Australia, this guide has been written specifically for the Western Asian male to travel and mate with local Hong Kong girls. Being an Asian American male myself, the primary goal of this guide is to help my fellow Asian brethren to get pussy, offer tips and advice on travel in Hong Kong. With that being said, enjoy the book!

Foreword: This guide was written strictly on my experiences that I had while I was in Hong Kong for a week (6 night's total) during the winter of 2012. Nothing here is made up; everything is 100% truth from my experiences, encounters, and research I conducted prior and during my trip in Hong Kong.

Introduction

Why come to Hong Kong?

I can sit here and think of a million reasons on why you should come to Hong Kong. I can say come for the food, for the history, the attractions, the shopping, etc. Those are excellent reasons to visit Hong Kong but come on seriously, what is the real reason why a young Asian man would want to visit Hong Kong all by himself? The answer is not rocket science; it's because of the girls.

Asian girls are always one of the most sexually attractive type females out there, and the girls in Hong Kong are second to none. A 100% born and bred Hong Kong Chinese girl is petite, with light and smooth skin, long straight black hair, pretty little face, with nice lips, and most importantly, a tight wet pussy. I would have to challenge one's manhood if he were to say he wasn't interested in fucking one of these girls from Hong Kong. Besides Hong Kong Chinese girls, the city is filled with women from other parts of Asia such as the Philippines, Indonesia, Thailand, Korea, Western Asian expats from the USA, UK, Australia, and Canada. There are also White and even Black women.

A western Asian male would own the pussy in Hong Kong if he played the game right. He would be the hottest commodity in the sex market when compared to the locals and any other ethnicities in Hong Kong. This is a big difference from the Western World where Asian men have to deal with social and stereotypical issues in the dating scene. Hong Kong is a Western Asian's escape to paradise. With that being said, I'll like to welcome you to Get Laid in Hong Kong, THE ONLY Travel and Sex Guide for the Western Asian Male. This is the first book of its kind for the Asian man and history in the making.

Part One

How to meet Hong Kong Girls

Chapter 1

Online Pipelining

Part One

Whether you're in town for a week's vacation or staying a few months for work, Hong Kong is the place to be if you are a Western Asian male and looking to get laid. There are many options in Hong Kong varying from beautiful light skinned pure Hong Kong Cantonese girls, Filipino and Indonesian girls (domestic helpers), Chinese mainlanders, Western Asians expats, Western White women and even Black women. As an Asian male born and raised in the western world, you have an elevated status amongst the local Hong Kong guys and even other non-Asian westerners. If you are an ABC (American born Chinese), CBC (Canadian born Chinese), BBC (British born Chinese) then you will receive rock star status with the girls in Hong Kong. (Unless you're incredibly hideous or boring as a rock).

Before I ventured out to Hong Kong, I was under the impression that the local girls there were conservative and getting laid was going to be a challenge. Eventually I found out through firsthand field experience and through my extensive research that there are two types of girls in Hong Kong. The first type is the conservative girl. This is the girl who doesn't enjoy or have casual sex. She has sex only if she's in a relationship with her boyfriend. The second kind of girl is the type that has nothing but casual sex. There are hardly any girls in between. The 100% born and bred Hong Kong girl that I hooked up with while I was there (let's call her Hong Kong girl One – named changed for privacy reasons) had slept with over 40 guys. Many of those guys were casual sex.

Her friend who is also 100% Hong Kong Chinese, was even wilder than she was sleeping with over 80 guys!!...and both these girls were still in their mid twenties!! A few more of her friends were quite wild when it came to sleeping around also. So there are conservative girls (to game for long-term) or the easy girls for a quick fuck....and of course there are the prostitutes if you're interested in paying for sex and don't want to put in the work.

The 3 Main Ways to getting ass in Hong Kong

There are 3 main ways that I know of to get ass in Hong Kong.

The first is the online pipelining game. Pipelining is the process of using dating websites that are popular in a certain city or country to email and message local girls to get phone numbers and set up dates before you get there.

Second is the clubbing and bar night scene in Lan Kwai Fong and the infamous Sunday “The Domestic helper’s day off.”

Third is paying for sex. Prostitution in Hong Kong’s notorious prostitution districts such as Wan Chai, Portland street in Causeway bay, the self employed freelance prostitute one woman brothels scattered throughout Hong Kong and last, making deals with domestic helpers.

(Note: Prostitution is legal in Hong Kong with a few exceptions. More on this in Chapter 4).

1. Online Pipelining

For my short week in Hong Kong I utilized pipelining which in turn got me the multiple lays I had while there. As mentioned, pipelining is the using of various dating websites in a certain city to set up a single's profile, send emails and messages, and to put up dating ads. Pipelining was extremely useful for me to size up the attitude and responses of the girls in Hong Kong. Hong Kong girls are interested, curious, and want to get acquainted with Asian men from the Western world.

To the girls in Hong Kong, it is considered a step up in status and quality to date a Western Asian male because in their minds, Asian guys coming from the USA, Canada, United Kingdom and Australia symbolizes wealth and status amongst themselves and their peers. There is a certain stigma and mystique that Western Asian men have in the eyes of local Hong Kong girls. They will see you with higher value as compared to local Hong Kong Chinese guys. If you're an Asian guy who is an ABC (American Born Chinese) that can speak and understand Cantonese (the Chinese dialect spoken in Hong Kong), your value will be even higher amongst your regular Western Asian counterparts who don't speak Cantonese. Nonetheless, whether you speak Cantonese or not, most Hong Kong girls under the age of 40 will speak and read fluent or conversational English since Hong Kong was a former colony of the United Kingdom and English was and still is a mandatory second language taught in schools today.

So just being an Asian from the Western world, you're instantly elevated in status and in the dating and mating world of Hong Kong because in you, the local girls will see a Western male but yet still Asian (which is more accepted in their society and social circle than other races). Girls would actively seek you out or talk to you once they know you are an ABC, CBC, ABC, BBC or some kind of Western Asian. You will be the most desired type of guy in Hong Kong whether it is for sex, relationships, and even marriage with the local girls.

Knowing this, you must incorporate and stress the fact that you're a Western born and bred Asian male when reaching out to girls through email or messaging them on the various dating sites that I'm about to mention later in this chapter. It's a tactic to employ that would get you on the top of the food chain. This would put you ahead of the competition, get you desired and sought after which would eventually lead to dates, sex, and a lot of fun.

Popular Hong Kong Dating sites.

1. Meetup

Meetup is an international site used for dating, activities, sports, networking, and making new friends.

The Dating groups to join in Hong Kong:

<http://www.meetup.com/Gokon-for-Singles-in-Hong-Kong/>

<http://www.meetup.com/SINGLE-CLUB/>

- Both of these groups are specifically created for single men and women in Hong Kong who are looking to meet a single of the opposite sex. The group is meant to have actual social meetup events once or a few times a month. These events provide opportunities where young single people in Hong Kong can go and meet new people and possibly find that special someone. Since I was in Hong Kong for a limited time and there was not an actual physical meetup event or party scheduled on the dates I was there, I decided to use both these website groups as a buffet line for a source of potential prospects that I could contact individually by email.

The Breakdown of both groups:

Gokon Singles in Hong Kong: The girls on Gokon for Singles in Hong Kong group are mostly young, good-looking, speak, and write pretty fluent English for the most part. The majority of the girls here are in their twenties, with few in their thirties and one or two occasional old turkeys in their forties. Currently as I'm writing this, there are 1622 members in the group with a female to male ratio of 60% to 40%. To sum it all up, there is close to 900 Hong Kong girls to contact on this group whom are all single and seeking a romantic/sexual partner of some sort because they have joined this group!

The vast majority are Hong Kong Chinese born local girls, with some Western Chinese and Asians from the USA, Australia, Canada and UK and a few White girls here and there. Most of the local girls are college educated; single professionals employed in respectable industries such as finance, clerical, accounting, travel/tourism, medical, etc. The Western Asian girls on the group are working abroad in Hong Kong with international companies or expats working English teaching jobs. The males on this group are practically all HK local Chinese and Asians in general. There are very few White or other ethnicities on this group so that is good news for Western Asian men who are all too familiar with having to compete with men of other ethnicities to try to get their own Asian women like they have to do back at home in the Western world. This group can be best described as a buffet line for the Western Asian male's dating life if used effectively.

Single Club Hong Kong: This group is even larger than the Gokon for Singles in Hong Kong. Currently as I'm writing, there are 2,716 members in the group. The female to male ratio is well balanced with slightly more females. I estimate the amount of available single females to contact at over a 1,400 which should be great news for all you horny males in Hong Kong looking to get your dick wet. The majority of the members are local Hong Kong Chinese, with a good few Western Asian expats, and several non Asians to choose from. The girls in this group are mainly in their 20's and 30's with a few older ones trying to get a young dick. There majority of males are local Hong Kong Chinese and Asian. There are very few non Asian men in this group as well.

The Benefits:

As a western Chinese/Asian you have a huge advantage in this group, much more so than the local HK guys and I will explain why. Most of the girls in HK love Western Born Asians. Since they were born and raised in HK, they don't worship White men the way "white washed" Asian women do in the western world. To HK girls, the Western Asian represents the best of both worlds. You're a westerner with western thinking but yet still Chinese/Asian in heritage and Asian in appearance. She will not be out casted in public walking around and being seen with a foreigner and would not catch heat from family and friends for going out with a Gwai-lo (Chinese word for White Man). She won't be ridiculed for producing half white and yellow babies and she doesn't have to worry about the stress and judgment of not being socially accepted by her peers and fellow kinsman for dating interracially.

You are an ABC or a Western Asian and you will have rock star status with her not only as a sexual and dating material but also a step up socially. She can parade you around town and show you off to the public and her friends which means for you, my fellow Western Asian brother, is a win-win situation and a shortcut and sure way to get her panties off and into her wet pussy.

An Online Dating Profile that gets you LAID

I can't stress on how important it is to create an online profile that conveys that you're an interesting, exciting, fun, and romantic person. This can be achieved through the type of photos you upload and the description you leave about yourself in your profile. In the world of online dating and all the potential competition you will face, it is imperative that you stand out amongst the other men in order to have success with online dating and sex. Remember with online dating sites and profiles you have to get noticed by the girl before she answers you. Only after you get her to notice you, can you get her even more invested by writing back to you, agree to a date, and from a date to seduction by running game that leads to sex.

How to create an interesting profile that gets you laid:

Now that you are an official member of the group it doesn't mean that the girls will suddenly start emailing and messaging you. The easy part was joining the group and now this is the preparation part. The hard part (contacting girls on the group) is yet to come. Before you cook a good meal you have to do the preparation part like washing the vegetables and prepping and salting the meat right? Same goes for online dating profiles. You need to set up an interesting profile that conveys value, romance, and excitement which in turn will set the interest and attraction in every girl you message later. The whole point is you need to prepare your profile to look interesting, fun and exciting for any girl to take interest in you because if not, you will be no different than all the other pencil dicks out there. You need to stand out from your competition and I will show you how to do it.

Uploading Profile Pictures that gets the attention of the Ladies

You absolutely MUST upload a good selection of pictures of yourself that convey value, your good looks, and your adventurous and fun side. It is extremely important you make yourself an interesting man with value by using a good profile photo and by effectively describing yourself in words as well. (This will be covered later in the chapter). Just think of as when you meet someone in person for the first time. You judge their appearance and make a decision if you're attracted to this person or not based on their looks and style. For online dating, the MAIN profile photo is the first impression.

Second impression in a real life scenario comes after the first impression, when you start getting to know the person and their personality and characteristics. For online dating, this is the part where you describe yourself in words and adjectives. These 2 parts are VERY IMPORTANT when it comes to online dating. That's why it's imperative you present yourself with your best picture and description of yourself at this point.

The Main Public Profile Picture

For dating sites, the Main Public Profile picture is your MAIN photo and is the first photo seen in your messages that you will send to girls. There are other photos that you can upload but understand your profile photo is the one the girls will see FIRST. Understand that this is the first impression. Similar to when you meet a person for the first time or for the first date, this is the part where girls will make their judgments, see if they like the guy, and or if they are attracted to your overall appearance and the way you carry yourself. For online dating, your profile photo is your first impression to the girl you want to date and meet. If girls don't like your main profile picture (first impression) they will either say they're not interested, get flakey or worst; ignore you and delete your message. Do you see how important the public profile photo is? This part is vital and you need to ace it. No exceptions.

Rules to a good Main Public Profile Photo.

1. It has to be a clear photo of yourself, showing your full face clearly.
2. This has to be your best photo you have to offer
3. Good lighting, good facial shot, dress well and look presentable.
4. If you're not that good looking and not confident to show just your face, then the key is to still have a good facial shot but with an interesting background. Ex: A nice city view, beach, dim romantic background, etc.

If you have a nice fit and muscular body to compensate for your lack of good looks then by all means takes a well angled shot of your face and body. Please have a shirt on. You can reveal your sexy chest a little but NO topless pictures for the main profile picture! If you're good looking with a nice body still stick to the previous steps. Your face is you main marketing ally.

5. You must smile! This is very important.

- Whatever smile works for you. If you show teeth, then make sure you have nice teeth and it is brushed clean. A nice handsome photo of yourself WITH a nice smile will work wonders. Trust me on this. I didn't like to smile in my photos before and just tried to look cool or bad boy like whenever I posed for a picture. Guess what? I barely got any attention or responses. NEVER NOT smile on your Main Profile picture. You MUST smile. Your smile must be genuine and not half ass either or girls can see through it. It needs to show that you smile and love yourself and love life.
- As soon as I starting smiling on my public profile photos I started seeing positive results. Girls responded to my messages and even compliment me on how handsome I was and what a nice smile I had. Why do girls like guys that smile? It portrays that you're confident, happy, have a good sense of humor, personality, and a positive light that makes you interesting and fun to be around. You will look more handsome and girls will certainly be attracted to you. Ask yourself this. Are attractive girls prettier when they smile or don't smile? Would you approach a girl that smile at you or a girl that gives you the cold, blank or even death stare?

Below are a few examples of good Profile Pictures that can be used for a meetup account.

Now let's analyze these examples and see what makes them a good Main public profile photo.

First photo: (starting from left) He is good looking so he utilized a clear picture of his strongest point and ally; His face. He also has a cool looking smile that works for him. This is sex appeal at its finest.

Second photo: This guy is not as handsome but the way he presents himself portrays confidence, good nature, and sense of style. See how although he isn't that handsome but still shows his full face but in a cool angle? See how he has a smile that makes him look 10 times better, confident and happier? See how he is dressed to impress with a sense of style that elevates him and makes him look more interesting? It is a win-win situation. Just because you're not attractive doesn't mean you can't get attention with your main public photo.

Third photo: He is quite good looking but he decided to show some skin as well. See how he showed skin without being topless or revealing too much? He doesn't look like a gigolo with that picture. He looks sexy, confident, and shows his body in a respectful and non arrogant manner. Most importantly, he has a great smile and used it.

Main Public Profile photo DO NOT'S

Here are examples of BAD Profile Pictures

First photo: What's wrong this picture? For one, he is not smiling. While he has the potential to be good looking and make himself more interesting, he ends up looking depressed like someone shot his dog. How does this profile picture convey any sort of attraction or get any female interest when the energy in the photo is depressing and sad. Nobody wants to be around someone with sad or negative energy, especially when it comes to females, and this photo has that written all over it.

Second Photo: Everything about this picture is wrong. He is not smiling and instead he looks angry. He looks scary, unapproachable, and negative. He is not exhibiting any positive energy and does not even attempt to try to look appealing or interesting to the opposite sex. This photo has no business being on a singles dating website. It belongs more in a "if you see this man, call 911" category.

Third Photo: Now you're probably wondering why I chose this picture. Well everything is wrong with this picture too. There is no doubt that the guy is good looking and looks quite cool in that photo. However, the way he poses and portrays himself comes off as arrogant, cool, over confident, and conceited. While this picture might work on some hood American girls, it surely would not work on the girls in Hong Kong. Trust me on this one. Hong Kong girls will get intimidated and judgmental and will rule you out as an asshole ABC, player, or jerk even before they see what you have to say.

Other Profile Photos to Upload

Now since you uploaded a good, well groomed, handsome, and smiling Main Public profile photo of yourself now it's time to upload the secondary photos for your dating profile. The Main profile photo (and your message) is what got the girls to notice you and click on your profile page, now the other profile photos is to keep them interested. On the Gokon Singles and Single Club in Hong Kong meetup groups, you are allowed to upload as many photos as you like. Personally, I uploaded 6 profile photos and I recommend you to do the same. My Main profile photo was similar to those above. With the other five photos, I strategically chose certain photos that I wanted to use to portray myself as a fun, exciting, spontaneous, and romantic single guy. Having good photos of you traveling and doing awesome things like participating in extreme sports or cooking immediately raises your value and sex appeal in the eyes of women.

Here are some examples of other profile photos you can use.

1. In a foreign city somewhere. – It can be a snapshot of the night skyline (with you in it), or a famous landmark such as the Eiffel tower, Seoul Tower, or the slanted building in Italy. Photos should be close up once again showing your face and a little more of your body and include the background.

- Pros: It shows that you are well traveled or at least like to travel. Women love men that travel.

2. Your adventurous side – A picture of you riding a motorcycle, snowboarding, skydiving, bunji jumping, water rafting, wrestling a bear, whatever. It has to be picture of you that shows that you are man’s man, with hobbies and adventures that displays you with an edge for something risky.

- Pros: Women love things that offer a little risk. It shows you’re not a boring movie and dinner kind of guy. She would picture herself participating in these adventures with you such as riding on the back of your motorcycle. Men that live on the edge or takes risks, are very sexual in nature to women. They get wet thinking about what a dangerous bad boy you are. Trust me, I played this card a lot and it helps!

3. Well Dressed – A picture of you in your best outfit. It can be your suit, leather jacket, dress shirt, etc. Pick the outfit that you received the most compliments and looks from girls. Do a full or half photo of yourself in your best outfit. Have nice posture and make sure to smile.

- Pros: Girls love guys that dress well.

4. The Romantic Photo – You at a candlelight dinner with wine, posing by a bridge with the city lights on, sunset, etc.

- Pros: Girls love romance and to be romanced. It shows that you are a romantic guy and in turn will be a potential romantic partner material to her.

5. The Athletic Photo – Works great for the ones with nice toned, cut and six pack bodies. Take a picture of yourself on a sunny beach somewhere, or just you topless but in a sexy way. (Topless is okay if it's not the Main Profile Photo). If you don't have a toned body to show off then just take a picture of yourself doing something athletic. Good examples are working out at the gym, practicing martial arts, playing basketball, etc. Just make sure it's a photo where you can show off your physical side.

- Pros: Girls love guys with muscular and toned bodies. Just like as with men who like women with a nice ass, tits, etc. It turns them out more than anything else. If you don't have muscular and toned body, then show off your athletic and physical side. Men are born to be physical and these are traits that are appealing sexually to women.

Describe yourself:

You will have a public profile when you join the group. It's no different than any other public profiles for dating websites. It is important you make the best of it by describing yourself in a way that makes you look fun, interesting, and demonstrating high value. To get to your public profile page, log onto your meetup account and click on the My groups link on the top right of your screen. You will get a drop down menu; click on the Gokon for Singles in Hong Kong or Single Club in Hong Kong option. This will take you to the group's homepage. Once you're on the homepage, look to the top right (right above the what's new news feed). You will see a My profile drop down menu. Click the first one on the drop down menu which is view profile. (This is your public profile for this group only and what other members will see when they click on your profile).

Describe yourself steps

Introduction: You can introduce yourself by writing your name and if you're a Western Asian make sure you mention that as well. Remember, being Western Asian gives you status and added points amongst the other average Joe's on the meetup group.

Example 1: My name is (your name) and I'm an Asian American from (put your city). Looking forward to meeting new people on this group.*

Example 2: My name is (your name) and I'm an Asian raised and educated from the West currently in Hong Kong for work. I'm looking forward to learn about Hong Kong and its culture and meet some new people in the process.*

Example 3: My name is (your name) and I'm a Canadian Born Chinese staying in Hong Kong. I am laid back and spontaneous. Dining in nice restaurants, wine, photography, reading and outdoor activities are my favorite pastimes. Would like to meet someone fun and interesting!*

The first example is simple and straightforward. Good if you're only staying in Hong Kong for a short period of time.

The second example states that you're currently in Hong Kong for work so now it shows that you will be staying for awhile which will give stability to girls thinking that you may seek something more long-term and stable. Mentioning that you want to learn about Hong Kong and its culture shows appreciation for her culture. This can be used as an advantage because now she can always be the one to introduce you to her culture and Hong Kong. Last, there's no need to mention what kind of work you do. Leave it as an open question, one to be answered when you are messaging her and she responds.

Example 3 is good if you're currently residing in Hong Kong. You can even use it if you're staying on a vacation only. The point is just to initially avoid seeming like you're staying only for a short period time. This one shows a bit of your amazing personality with key words like fun, spontaneous, and sense of humor. All characteristics that girl's should find interesting and attractive.

Are you single? Yes. (Even if you're not, still write yes)

Are you a male or female? Male

What is your Chinese Zodiac sign? If you know, write it. If you don't just write "You tell me."

What is your Western zodiac sign? Aquarius. (Or whatever your sign is)

Messaging Girls on Gokons for Singles in Hong Kong and Single's Club in Hong Kong

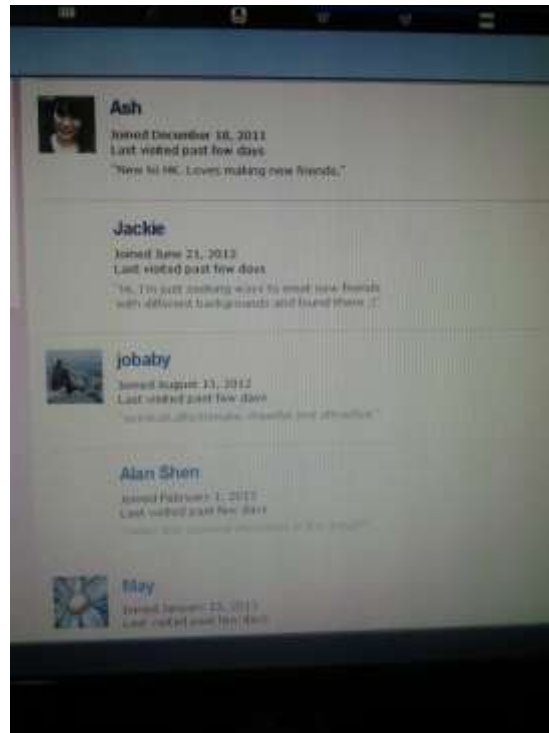

Congratulations! You've finally gotten through the preparation part and now you have a high value, fun, interesting, and sex appealing dating profile that is ready to go! As I previously mentioned, creating your profile was the easy part and the hard part is yet to come. This is the middle stage where you will message the girls on Gokon Singles and Single Club in Hong Kong in hopes of getting responses that lead to dates, that in turn, will lead to sex. This is the part where you will most likely spend the most time on, as I did, all in the preparation and messaging girls before I embarked on my sex journey/vacation in Hong Kong. However, now I get to pass on what I learned and my experiences to you, my dear reader, through shortcuts I discovered on which was the easiest, fastest, and most effective way to get in touch with the girls on this group to make dates.

Now go the home page of Gokon for Singles in Hong Kong. It should look something like the screen shot below.

Note: It would be exactly the same process for the Single Club in Hong Kong Group.

Now look to the left side of the home page screen. Right beneath the group picture, you will see an About us tab with a blue shade. Underneath the about us you will see Friends or Members. Click on that and now the screen shot will look like the picture underneath.

You have the option to scroll down looking through the girl's pictures to see which profile catches your eye. Right underneath the name, you will see the date they joined, what was the last time they logged onto the site and a little description about themselves. When you find a profile that you like, click on her name and it will take you to her profile page. It should look like this:
